In Fond Memory

of

Karen Fredstrom

Here, down this pathway,
The garden where she walked and paused,
Searching, she lingered like sunshine.
Now I find her not,
But her steps can still be heard
Here--in my heart.

MONTICOLA SUMMER SUPPLEMENT 1965

Judy Chronic, Lillian Branning, Coy Kratz, Ralph Alderman, and Bonnie Spiller are shown in a scene from "Annie Get Your Gun."

Rivals for '66 Student Body Secretary, Julie Taylor and Molly Critchell, are really friendly!

After Class Day exercises, seniors and their parents crowd the gym, where they were honored at the Senior Tea.

Mr. White, in the newly organized mechanical drawing class, checks Pat Chesley's work.

Off to Moscow for the first game of the season--and victory!

Seniors greet one and all during "Hello Week."

"Children, what big mouths you have!"
"The better to cheer with, my dear."

Our team and mascot break the Bulldog sign and the spirit of the Badgers.

---And the Victory Bell rings.

Instructing, guiding, prodding and praising, our teachers steered us through our years that WE WERE HERE at SHS.

FACULTY

Principal Dick Sodorff Speaks to Students

Members of the Senior High School should be justly proud of this 1965 Monticola. It signifies accomplishments far beyond the physical make up and content. This annual not only represents hard work, questions of finance, and free expression by the annual staff members, but it also represents many instances of co-operation by all of the students and faculty of the Senior High School. Certainly this is a symbol of true democratic procedure of which we can all be proud.

It is my wish that as students leave Sandpoint High School to pursue greater things, they will use this Monticola as a reminder of many pleasant associations, activities and learning experiences and that this reference will help spur them on to greater accomplishments--accomplishments that will not only benefit themselves but will also benefit their fellow man.

KING RICK ANTHONY AND QUEEN DENICE LUTZKE

Senior Ball

OUR ROYALTY: Senior King and Queen, Rick Anthony and Denice Lutzke, and their attendents-- Jim Miller, Lesle Oliver, Linda Patton, and Mark Hawkins.

The theme was "Until the Twelfth of Never," and the Senior girls said they had never had a more wonderful time.

The Senior men turned out in a record number.

We Were Here

The Seniors are truly grateful to our advisers--Mr. Benson, Mrs. Sodorff, and Mr. Anderson--the "Sweethearts of the Senior Class."

Rising through the ranks of grade school and junior high, the class of 1965 embarked upon a journey leading to three of the most impressive and happy years of our lives. On August 29, 1962, WE, the largest entering class in SHS history, first stormed the halls of Sandpoint Senior High School. During our sophomore year the first signs of independence were cultivated. We were given the opportunity to choose our curriculums and to participate in the activities "just right" for us. With self-consciousness and trepidation, we joined in the activities of Hello Week. With the first vestiges of pride in acting as a class, we "Mice" presented the "Cats" (juniors) and the "Bulldogs" (seniors) with catnip and a large bone as tokens of our appreciation for the friendly welcome to high school.

As model juniors we razzed the incoming sophomores as we had been razzed. Thoughts of the uncertainty of the future began to plague us as we were introduced to the national tests--PSAT, ITED, National Merit, National Math, and College Boards. Gaining more pride in ourselves as a class, we chose our class rings and worked to earn money for the coming year.

With thoughts of "Our senior year at last!" we began our final hectic leg of the journey. Struggling to overcome "Senioritis" we labored on the requisites for graduation. Our Senior Ball, "Until the Twelfth of Never," was a memorable success. We sold tickets for a trip to Hawaii to earn money for our major class project. We presented the play "Women in White," a murder mystery.

Overcome by sentimentality and gratefulness, we sang the "Alma Mater" with tears in our eyes. As we embark upon a new journey, we hope that the halls of SHS will always remember, as we will, the years that WE WERE HERE.

Mike examines his wrist (?) in the Senior biology class.

Elusive green "mercury" for the money thermometer.

As the money thermometer bursts, Doug and Marianne beam their pleasure.

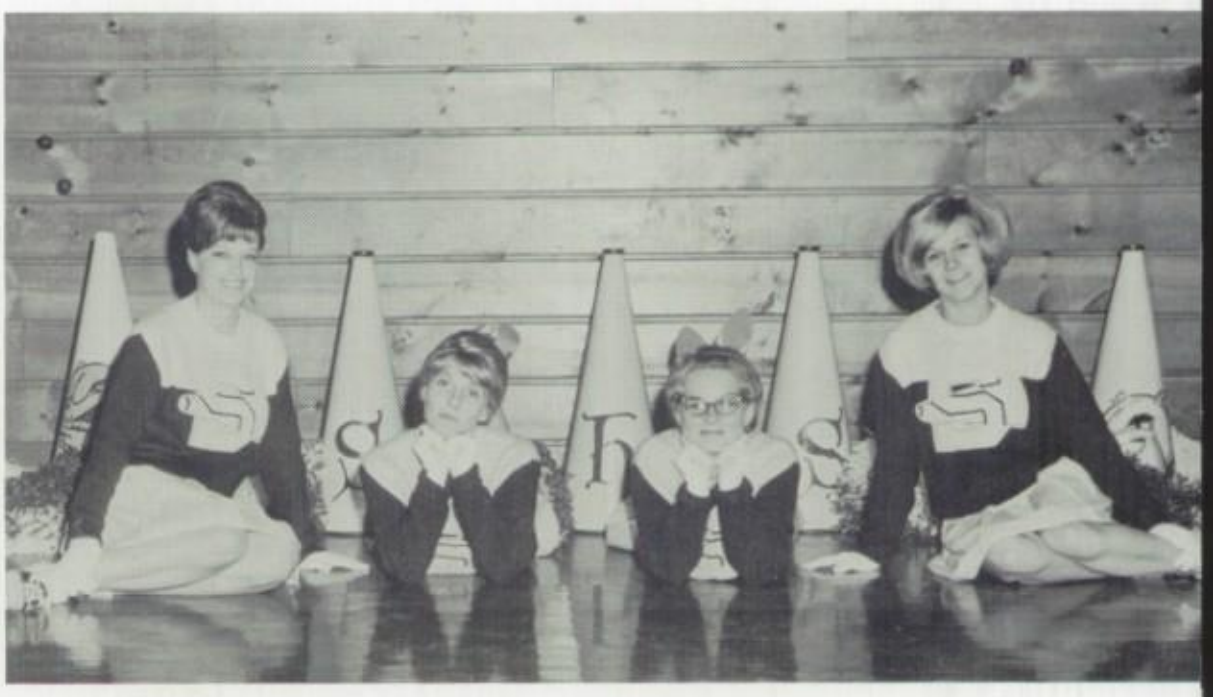
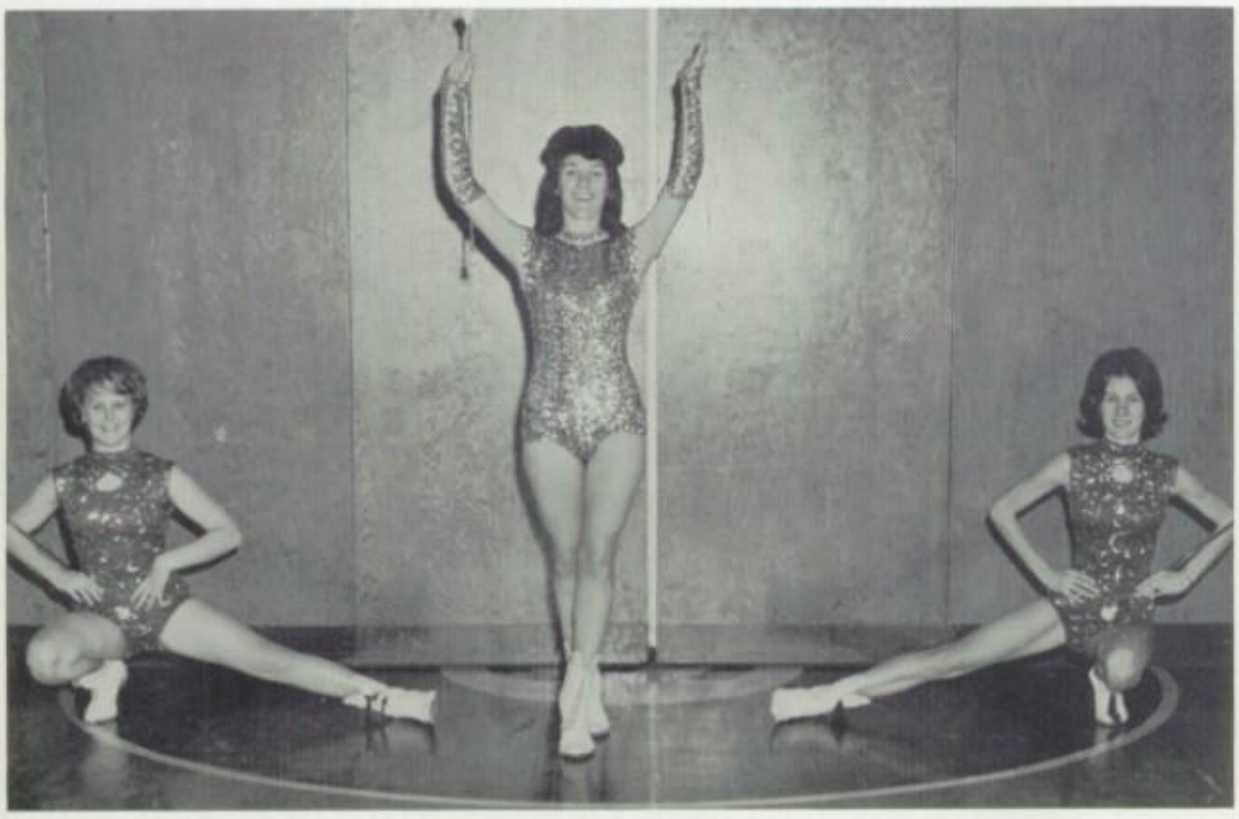
Pep and Glamour Enliven School Year

Our mascot, Linda Patton, doesn't often get to lie down on the job!



Adding spice and noise to our cheering section are the peppy varsity cheerleaders Andrea Balch, Robin Melior, Lila Norgaarden, and Lesle Oliver.



The twirlers Dee Morton, Debbie Hazeltine, and Wanda Wilson dazzle the student body with their grace and skill.

The vivacious JV cheerleaders, Lynne Sletager and Dee Morton urge their team on to victory.

WE WERE HERE--very evidently--pursuing our various activities from fall to spring.

Bulldogs Maintain Winning Spirit

Bulldogs

Coach Francis McDonnell's hard-hitting Bulldogs started off the football season with a respectable 13-6 win over Moscow and a decisive 28-13 victory against University High. A September loss to Pullman was Sandpoint's first defeat of the season; however, this did not hurt the Bulldogs too much as it was a non-conference game. The Bulldogs were victorious in the next two games as Sandpoint High's gridders trounced the Bonners Ferry Badgers 40-6, and in a tough, exciting battle they whipped the previously undefeated Clarkston 20-12. With the passing arm of Gary Elliot and the running talents of Smokey Chubb and Paul Munson, the Bulldogs toppled the strong Coeur d' Alene Vikings in the cold, rainy October game, but the following contest with the Lewiston Bengals spelled Sandpoint's first league defeat. The 19-14 loss put the Bengals up with the Bulldogs in leading the Inland Empire League.

After a loss to the Kellogg Miners, the Idaho Panhandle League championship was tossed into a three-way tie with Sandpoint, Coeur d' Alene, and Wallace sharing the top honors. Sandpoint and Lewiston also finished up with a tie for first in the Inland Empire League. The last game of the season was a non-conference contest with Libby; this the Bulldogs took easily. Mike Brown set a Sandpoint record in that game: he was the only Bulldog to score three touchdowns in a single game. He was also high point man for the season followed closely by Smokey Chubb and Paul Munson.

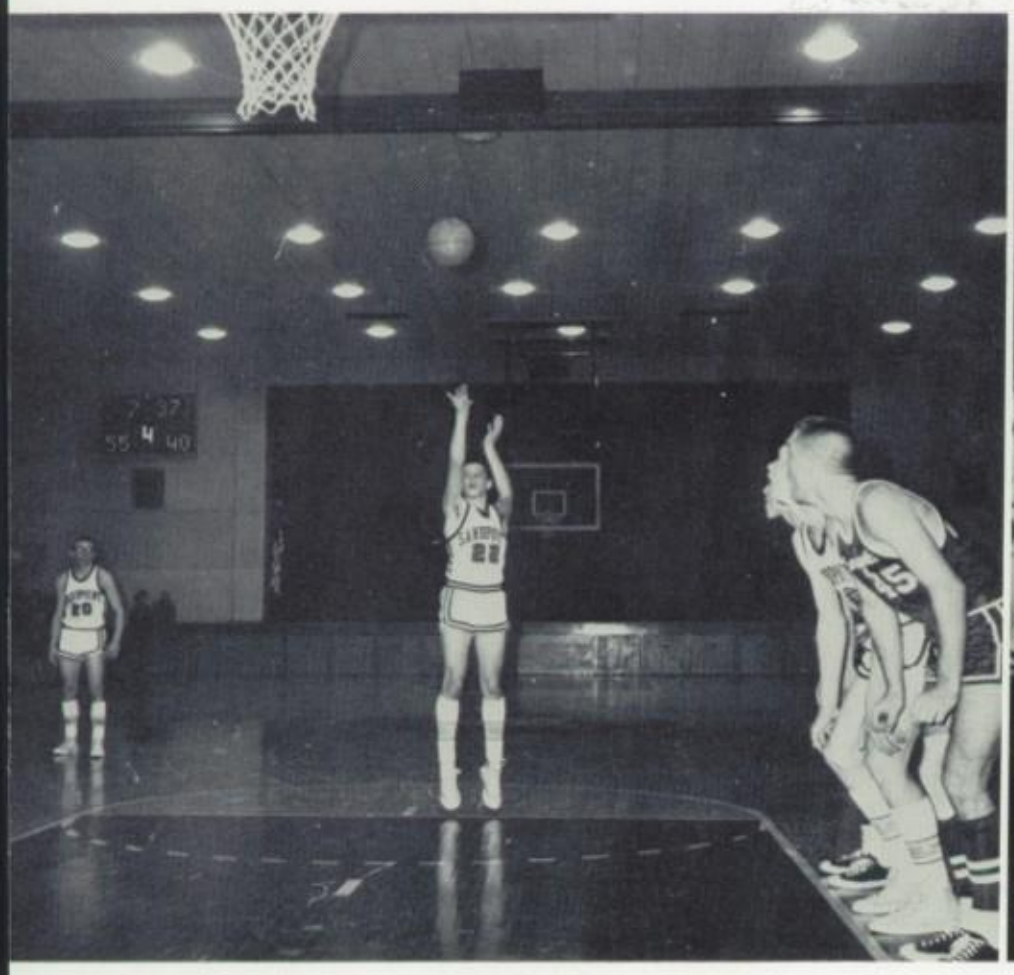
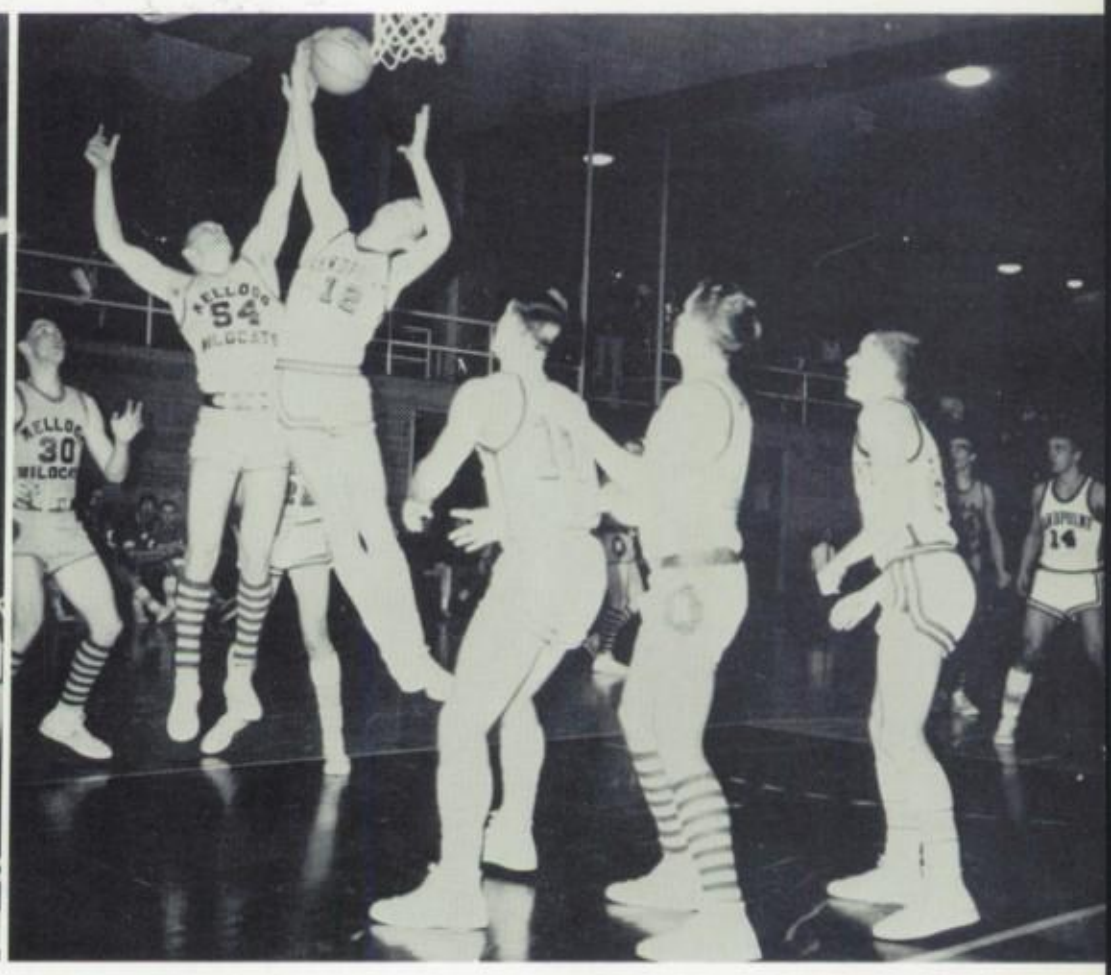
SECOND ROW: Tom Kellogg, Bruce Johnson, Mark McComas, Joe Stilwell, Rich Engelen, Herb Burnett, Dick Wild, Dave Smith, Coach Partridge.

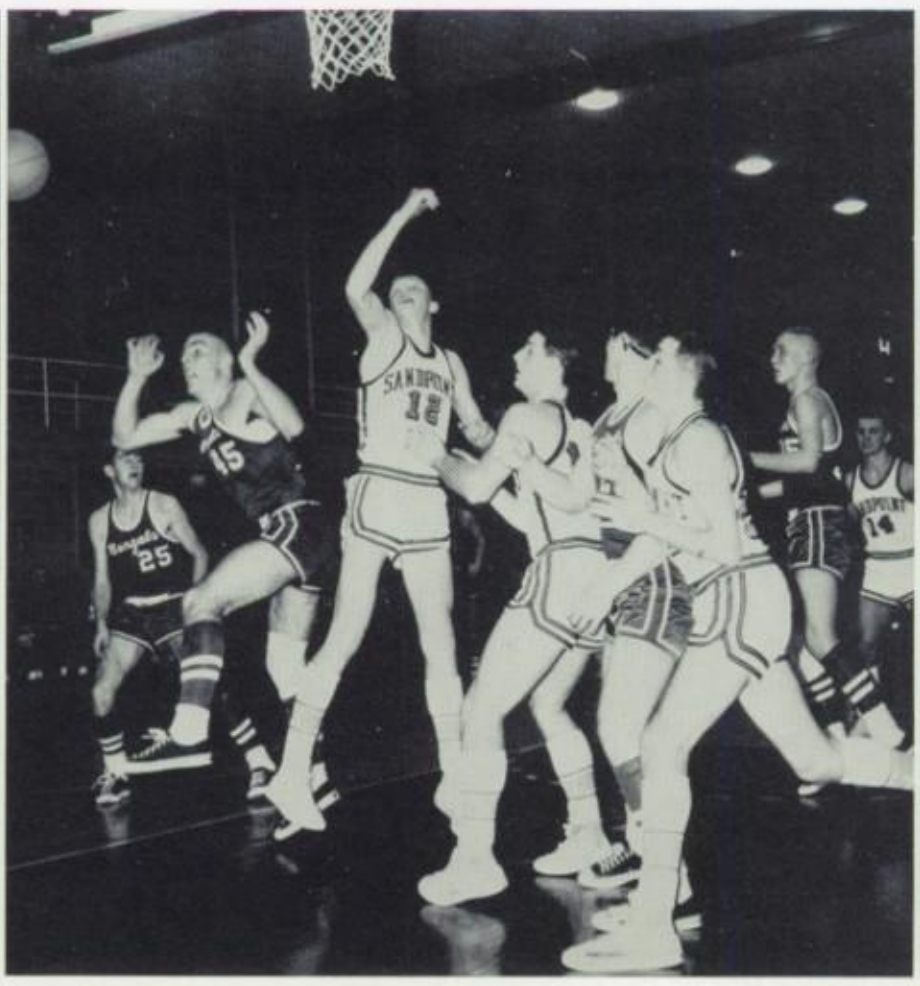


Mike Parkins shows good form in free throw shooting in Sandpoint's first encounter with the Lewiston Bengals. Lewiston's Steve Arnold (45) stands in rebound position with Vance Ekwortzell (20) in the background.



Elliot and Nichols battle for rebound as Bulldog's Bob Wells (10) and Vance Ekwortzell (22) watch the action with Kellogg's Bruce Thompson (30).

Chubb scores two for the Sandpoint cagers in their win over the Kellogg Wildcats. Bob Brower (14) defends for Kellogg as Terry Brown moves in for the rebound.



Steve Arnold (45) Lewiston's big center, knocks the ball from Elliot's (12) grasp. Hill (25) of Lewiston and Parkins and Wells of Sandpoint go for the ball.

Gary Elliot (12) battles big Don Barnes of Coeur d' Alene for rebound as Sandpoint goes down in defeat 58 to 61. Mike Parkins (20) and Gregg Crimp (15) wait anxiously for results.
